DEMOCRAT NAMED COMMISSIONER OF FIRE AND POLICE

Mayor Smith Appoints Frank Rieke to Succeed J. K.
Bonds July 10.

Suggests No More Saloon Licenses be Granted.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN TONIGHT.

Mr. Frank Rieke, a Democrat, was today appointed by Mayor Smith to succeed Mr. J. K. Bonds as police and fire commissioner July 10. This is the second appointment by Mayor Smith to the board, the first being Dr. Frank Boyd, Republican. Both are representative men, property holders and free from political taint.

"I had no regard for Mr. Rieke's politics, when I appointed him," said Mayor Smith this morning, when he announced it. "I am not trying to build up a bi-partisan board. I am trying to build up a non-partisan board. I have studied over the appointment for a long time. Mr. Rieke is a personal friend of mine, and a man, whom I know to be well qualified to fill the office in justice, to the city, himself and the administration."

Enough Saloons.

Mayor Smith will send a communication to the board of aldermen tonight, requesting that no more retail liquor dealers' licenses be granted. In his annual message Mayor Smith said he could see no objection to the location here of wholesalers from Tennessee, but he thought the city has quite enough saloons. He understands that more applications will be presented to the board.

Board of Health.

The board of health instructed Dr. H. P. Sights, health officer, to publish the names of those who have not made sewer connections in district No. 1, and prosecute those who do not comply within ten days. Little's pond near the Illinois Central station will be inspected by Dr. Sights and City Solicitor James Campbell, Jr., to ascertain whether the city or property owner is responsible for the nuisance. Physicians, who do not report births promptly will be proceeded against.

LUCY OVERBEY'S SUFFERING ENDED; RESTS IN PEACE

The death of Miss Lucy Vaughan Overbey, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Overbey, today just at noon, has caused widespread sorrow. She was "so rich in all that is girlhood's praise," and her own circle of friends was an especially large one. Not only the teachers who have taught her from earliest school years until the present, and those friends of her own age, but a host of older men and women who loved the winsome, radiant girl.

Usually bright, gifted, of charming personality, it was the sweet selfishness of her nature, the ever preferring another to herself, that made and bound the friends to her. From the day that she was taken ill through all her days of keen suffering, her brave cheerfulness was the wonder of her physicians and even steadied their courage. The thought for others even in her own illness was shown at Easter when she asked that some of her flowers be sent to the various churches. So many had been given to her and she wanted to share her brightness with others. This beautiful act of a gracious spirit was an index to her character and was the prophecy of the noble womanhood that was being moulded and developed day by day in a winsome way.

She was born in Paducah at 935 Jefferson street, and was 13 years of age. She died at her home, 231 Fountain avenue at 11:45 o'clock today, from an appendical operation after a critical illness of weeks. No arrangements for the funeral have been made.

"Breaker" Burns

Spring Lake, N. J., June 10.—Sixty guests of the "Breakers" hotel are left shelterless and limply clad today by a fire which destroyed the hotel. The guests narrowly escaped death. Few saved anything. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

WRIGHTS' MEDALS.

Washington, June 10.—Orville and Wilbur Wright were given gold medals, voted by the Aero Club of America, by President Taft this afternoon in the east room of the white house. The medals cost $2,000. Their sister Katherine was present. A throng of distinguished scientists and diplomats and officials and military men were present. They will return to Dayton tonight.

SMUGGLE CHINESE.

Chicago, Ill., June 10.—Two Mexicans, charged with implication in smuggling Chinese into the United States, testified that they used in the scheme the ice box of a dining car attached to Pullman express trains between El Paso and Chicago, hiding the smuggled Chinese in them. Two dining car cooks testified they were offered a big sum for each Chinese smuggled out of Mexico. They alleged brakemen got $500 apiece.

CANAL TO BE FIXED.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., June 10.—The raging waters of the Canadian canal probably will be brought under control today. It is the result of the breaking of the lower gate of the canal by a steamer. The loss is estimated at $5,000. An investigation is being made to place the responsibility for the accident.

PASSENGERS IN PANIC.

New York, June 10.—After a night of horror, following the stranding of the big Spanish liner, Antonio Lopez, from Cadiz, on a sand reef south of the coast of Long Island, the life saving station got in communication with the boat today. There are 444 passengers. Ed Baker, 22 years old, reached the ship in a small boat and quieted their fears.

Oldest Prohibitionist.

Paducah, Ky., June 10.—Gideon Taber Stewart, 85 years old, probably the oldest prominent prohibitionist in the country, died today. He was born in Johnstown, Ky. He was candidate for prohibitionist vice-president in 1876.

For Venezuela

New York, June 10.—Renewed vigilance on the part of the United States secret service operatives promises developments in a filibustering expedition the object of which is to overthrow the Gomez administration in Venezuela.

More Black Hand

Cleveland, June 10.—Federal officers today are convinced the roundup of alleged Black Hand members in Ohio is only begun and that it extends to other parts of the country. It is intimated that inspectors from other postoffice districts will be called out to assist in the crusade. Ten Italians and Sicilians are arrested. It is likely more are to follow.

Chautauqua Program is Interesting to All

With only a few more days before the next annual session of the Paducah Chautauqua association will open more and more interest is being manifested in the talent that is to appear.

A study of the program as already published will show that a superior program has been arranged and as announced yesterday the management has succeeded in getting Opie Reed to take the place of Adam Bede. Some time ago a lively desire was expressed for this remarkable storyteller, but it was thought that he was not available. Of course everybody expects to hear W. J. Bryan on Sunday afternoon, followed by the Trier sisters in the evening. Miss Mary Lawrence Claxton will also make her appearance on Sunday evening and will remain during the entire eight days. Spilman Riggs comes Monday afternoon and Tuesday evening and on Monday evening Polk Miller and Colonel Booker appear as "Old Confederates." Merchants who purchased season tickets in advance have a few left at the special price of $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. The tickets are good for every entertainment during the entire eight days and when it is considered that on three days the single admission price is 35 cents it makes all the good things in five days come at only 50 cents, and all the "good things" includes Opie Reed, who is worth double the 50

Election of General Evans and Selection of Mobile for Next Reunion Closes Great Gathering.

Memphis, June 10.—The annual encampment of Confederate veterans closed today with a parade of 10,000 veterans. It was viewed by General Fred Grant. The intense heat caused some to be overcome with heat and fatigue.

MAYFIELD COMPANY GETS ITS INSURANCE

Frankfort, Ky., June 10.—The appellate court affirmed the cases of the Hanover Fire Insurance company and the Georgia Home Fire company against the Mayfield Planing Mills company. The company sued for a loss by fire. The court holds the separate structure or structures, which together constitute one, are covered within the intent of the description in the policy.

No Income Tax

Washington, June 10.—Work on the wool schedule was resumed in the senate today. Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, offered an amendment, reducing the tariff on yarns made wholly or partly of wool. The amendment was lost.

Aldrich and other Republican leaders this afternoon are confidently claiming to have the votes necessary to defeat the income tax proposition and to adopt an amendment, putting a tax on the dividends of corporations. According to previous arrangements the income tax will be considered before the close of today's session.

Boy Killed By Lightning.

Mayfield, Ky., June 10.—Otis Kilgrew, the 10-years-old step-son of Louis Williams, was killed by lightning near here.

June Division High School '09 Graduates.

HANGING WILL BE IN COUNTY JAIL YARD ON JUNE 25

The jail yard will be the scene of the hanging of George Freeman, the colored murderer sentenced to be hanged June 25. This morning Sheriff Ogilvie inspected the jail premises, and decided to erect the scaffold in the southwestern corner of the yard. Before the inspection it was thought that the yard was too crowded, but measurements showed that there was room for the scaffold, and to accommodate the 50 witnesses allowed by law.

Sheriff Ogilvie left this afternoon for Mayfield to examine a regulation hangman's rope, and may purchase it. Police Chief McNutt, of Mayfield, wrote Sheriff Ogilvie that he had two ropes, and would sell one to the county at a saving. If secure it is probable that it will be purchased. A hangman's rope costs about $25. Mr. Ogilvie has ascertained.

Sheriff Ogilvie has not let the contract for the erection of the scaffold, but Constable A. C. Shelton, who built one scaffold may get it. The death warrant has not been read to Freeman yet, although Sheriff Ogilvie will perform the official act in plenty of time.

No hour has been set for the hanging. The order gives Sheriff Ogilvie the right to select any hour between sunrise and sunset, but he is intimated that the execution will take place in the morning. Sheriff Ogilvie has been besieged by calls for tickets to witness the hanging, but many hundred will be turned aside because only 50 witnesses are allowed. The others will be content to climb trees and poles, and look over the jail wall.

Battle With Burglar.

New York, June 10.—Bessie Townsend, Ada Townsend and Kittie Halsey, three society young women of New York, battled with a burglar, who broke into the Beekman Townsend summer home at Oyster Bay early today. The girls were cut and bruised, but not seriously.

BRASSES CONCEALED BY THIEVES FOUND IN RIVER.

Thirty-three brasses were recovered today from the Tennessee river by Detective T. J. Moore and Pete Elch of the railroad police. The brass, it is alleged, was hidden in the Tennessee river by the four men arrested yesterday for stealing the brass from cars on a sidetrack. The other part of the brass was broken into bits and shipped to Louisville, where it has been recovered. The brass was hidden near Livingston's Point. The value of the brass is about $75.

Mad Dog at Reception

New Iberia, La., June 10.—As the result of a child dying of symptoms of hydrophobia, 16 bitten by a mad dog at a reception previous to a wedding here a month ago, are being hurried today to the Pasteur Institute at New Orleans for treatment. The prospective bride was among those attacked. The dog rushed into the parlor.

PLANTERS DON'T LIKE LEBUS' BIG SALARY

Winchester, Ky., June 10. (Special.)—The jury board increased Clarence Lebus' salary to $15,000 and will allow him $12,000 a year for the past two years. The action causes dissatisfaction among the growers.

Tonight the commencement exercises of the 1909 graduating class of the high school will be held at the Kentucky theater, and sixteen students will be launched into the sea of life. Their passing from school life into the battles of the world will be witnessed by a large audience of friends. Preparations for the commencement have been completed and the stage of the theater is decorated prettily with flowers, for the edict of the school board will hold good that the graduates will not be allowed to receive flowers from friends at the exercises. The girls will be dressed in their spotless white commencement dresses while the boys will wear dark suits.

The stage will be decorated appropriately with palms. In the rear a pyramid of the palms will be seen. The speaker's chair will be covered with white carnations, the school flower. Suspended above the stage is "99" in large gilt figures, while below is suspended a High school pennant.

Predictions are for a large audience tonight, as the sale of tickets has been good today aside from the tickets that were sold by the students Dr. Samuel Jefferson, who will deliver the address to the graduating class, will arrive this evening at 6:15 o'clock.

The graduates will be seated on the stage in a semi-circle with the members of the High school faculty, while the members of the school board will occupy a box. The graduates are: June division—Misses Julia Dade Dabney, valedictorian; Clara Weeden Smith, salutatorian; Katherine Rock, Allie D. Foster, Eleanor Cabell, Almee Dreyfuss, and Messrs. William Wilhelm, John Elias Rinkler, James Edward Mitchell and Frank Lutenburg. January division—Misses Ella Marian Williamson, valedictorian; Irma Yeiser, Lucy Belle Settle, Elizabeth Rabb Kirkland, and Messrs. George Nelson Rawleigh and George Atwell Scott.

Alumni to Entertain.

The closing entertainment for the graduates will be the boat ride tomorrow night by the Alumni association. The steamer Dick Fowler has been chartered, and invitations have been issued to the graduates to meet the 1909 class. The boat will leave the wharf at 8 o'clock and will return at 10 o'clock.

All the teachers who were elected by the school board have accepted their positions, and the prospects are that there will only be a few places to fill during the summer. Some of the teachers have been offered better positions, but they have accepted their positions in the Paducah schools, although they may accept other positions and resign later in the summer.

School Board. The school board will meet tonight.

AUTHOR OF "MAN WITHOUT COUNTRY" IS CALLED HOME

Boston, Mass., June 10.—The Rev. Edward Everett Hale, chaplain of the senate, died at his home at Roxbury today. The cause was heart trouble.

Dr. Hale was ailing two weeks. He declined gradually though the end came suddenly. His sister, Miss Susan Hale, and physician, Dr. Temple, and a number of personal friends were at his bedside when the end came peacefully.

He was born April 2, 1822. He was one of the group of literatures, preachers and teachers who made Boston famous. He was graduated from Harvard 70 years ago. Dartmouth and Williams college conferred honorary degrees on him. He joined the Unitarian ministry in 1846. He married Miss Emily Baldwin Perkins. He wrote "Man Without a Country." His writings cover a wide range.

"ISHKODAH" IS ISSUED

AS HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL. "The Ishkodah," the High school annual, was issued from the press today, and it is a creditable edition. The paper is filled with pictures of the classes, and athletic organizations, and contains a brief writeup of doings at the school. For the benefit of the public the annuals have been placed on sale at the bookstores. The work is a credit to the young editors of the school paper. Mr. Clark Bondurant designed a clever cover and brightened the booklet with several excellent cartoons.

In called session to close up the business of the school session. Salaries will be allowed by the board so that the teachers may draw their money this week and leave for summer schools and home. The diplomas of the graduating class will be signed. The board will meet early in the evening so that the business may be disposed of in time for the board to attend the commencement in a body.

STATE WON'T COMPROMISE SMEDLEY CASE

Declines Offer of Bonding Company to Settle Alleged Shortage.

Books Being Carefully Audited For Records.

NOT ALL RECEIPTS ENTERED.

Negotiations are under way for a compromise in settlement of the shortage due the state in the office of Hiram Smedley, former county court clerk, by his bondsmen, the Title Guaranty and Surety company, of Scranton, Pa. An offer of $2,250 has been turned down by the state auditor, but negotiations have been resumed and it is said that a compromise will be made in the next few days or in a short time. The effort has reached such a stage that either a compromise will be effected or that the case will be fought out in the courts.

Both the representatives of the surety company and the state are reticent on the question, but admit that it is true they are dicker for a compromise. The company is desirous of getting the settlements closed, while the state officials realize it would be a world of work to take depositions for the case to be dragged through the courts.

The amount of money due the state by the discrepancies in the administration of Smedley probably can never be told. Revenue Agent W. M. Husbands in his suit against Smedley and his bondsmen asked for $4,200 due on back taxes. This amount was ascertained after a careful and tedious comparison of receipts with the books of Smedley. However, it is acknowledged that much money was received in the office and no record was ever made.

It is understood that the surety company made the first step towards effecting a settlement of the shortage with the state, as the company settled with the county for $1,582.50 due on back taxes. The offer of $2,250 was rejected by the state auditor, but, while the officials are silent, it is whispered that the company has made a better offer, and that the compromise will be made and the announcement may come in a short time.

Going Over the Books.

Prof. John D. Smith and Magistrate J. H. Burnett, who are auditing the books of Hiram Smedley, are about three-fourths through the work and will be ready to make their report at the July meeting of fiscal court. The work of auditing the books began with the year 1897 and the work will continue until the resignation of Smedley, although the fiscal court never gave Mr. Smith any orders how long to continue the investigation.

In his work Mr. Smith reads the minutes of fiscal court and traces each order by whom it was paid, and has the books of the county treasurer to verify with. Through the books, it is said, Mr. Smith will be able to ascertain definitely only about the alleged forgeries, as it is alleged that much of the money collected by Smedley while officiating as clerk was not put on record, and especially was this true in regard to money due the state. One of the alleged discrepancies was a receipt of $200 for a state liquor license. On the stub it is alleged he would record a license to retail soft drinks.

Callahan Dying.

Jackson, Ky., June 10.—All hope for the recovery of Ed Callahan, febrile, is abandoned, according to reports today. He is growing weaker. Politics is said to be entering into the cases of the men alleged to have shot Callahan.

FIVE HELD FOR MURDER.

Neighbors of Principal, Who Shot Man in Court, Arrested.

St. Louis, Mo., June 9.—Five arrests were made among the spectators at today's inquest over Fred Mohrle, who was killed by Thomas Kane in the corridor of the criminal court building here yesterday. The prisoners are all residents of the neighborhood in which the principals of the tragedy live and are suspected of having guilty knowledge of a plot to slay Mohrle in revenge for the killing of Sam Young, a constable and political leader of the river wards.

The jury returned a verdict that Mohrle came to his death from bullet wounds inflicted by Kane. Appended to the verdict was a postscript, which read:

"We, the jury, further believe that murder is getting to be a common crime, and certainly is giving our city a bad reputation, and that if proper efforts were made by our officials a great deal of such crimes would be prevented."

2ND PUBLICATION OF THE STANDING OF THE CONTESTANTS

Large Number of Names Shows Widest Interest in Contest.

Nearly Thousand Altogether Have Been Nominated

IT'S THE STICKER THAT WINS.

The Sun publishes today for the second time the standing of all of the contestants in The Sun and Associated Newspapers' Great Voting Contest.

Nothing more than the length of this list is needed to prove the wide interest that this great $10,000 contest is attracting throughout the eleven counties that will share in the distribution of prizes. Nearly a thousand popular people throughout the contest territory have entered the race or been nominated by their friends. Some have already dropped out, other names will be cut from the list before it is published again and a very small number of the original nominees will remain until the finish.

But in the thousand people nominated enough will stick to make the contest a lively success. And it is the STICKERS who will win—a STICKER will get the Ford touring car, and another STICKER will get the Ford roadster, another the $350 in cash and fifty-four other STICKERS will get the 54 other good-cash prizes.

Contestants who enter with a proper appreciation of what it requires to win are never discouraged by a slow start. These gather momentum as they go and come in at the finish with the votes that tell. It is best, of course, to work hard at first, especially in time to take advantage of the second bonus, which is the most liberal of the contest; but it is the PLODDER, the STICKER that gets there in the end. Make your sports in taking advantage of the bonuses and don't get discouraged at small things.

This week's scores are low, as a rule, but the activity of contestants is more noticeable each day. Many of them realize the significance of the second bonus vote offer and are quietly preparing to benefit by it. By the end of next week the heads and shoulders of the sturdy ones will begin to show above the crowd and then the contest will become intensified and exciting.

The second bonus is the present goal. It means FORTY THOUSAND EXTRA VOTES will be given for every $25 of new subscriptions turned in between Monday, June 5, and Saturday, June 19, in addition to the regular scale; and TWENTY THOUSAND EXTRA VOTES, over and above the regular scale, will be given for every $25 of OLD subscriptions turned in at any time from the start of the contest to Saturday, June 19. No bonus so liberal will be offered again during the contest. It is the one bid for early activity, as it is the one chance to give the energetic candidate a tolling lead. Not a single candidate who expects to stick to the finish should fail to take advantage of it.

PETER PURYEAR,

Notary Public McCracken Co.

My commission expires January 10, 1912.

Daily Thought.

Everybody wants something for nothing, but few people are satisfied with what they get that way.

HELP WANTED.

The opinion of an enemy is worth nothing, but a declaration against interest is worthy of all credence. This morning in a long plea by way of confession and avoidance of the charge made by Dr. G. T. Sullivan, chairman of the pastors' association, that the paper for six months has maintained "a continued ugly attitude toward the ministers of our city," the News-Democrat says Dr.
Sullivan must have "obtained his ground for such a charge from some other source than the columns of this (N. D.) paper," and presumes he found the ground in comments of the Evening Sun on the News-Democrat's policy.

We will no more than allude to the significance of a yawning blank space in the geographical middle of the News-Democrat's two-column plea, with the appeal "Help Wanted" in caps, at the top, and hasten to thank it for the conclusion that the ministers of Paducah read The Evening Sun and believe it and endorse what the Evening Sun had to say about the News-Democrat's crusade against decency.

The same desperate complaint was paid The Evening Sun, when it quoted the Democratic press of the Second senatorial district in regard to the convention held at Wallace park; for on that occasion the News-Democrat felt certain that the press of the district obtained its information from the Evening Sun. It is no mean honor to be thus relied upon by the press of the Purchase and the ministers of Paducah.

There is something sacred or should be, about the calling and labors of those whose life work lies in the useful fields of God's service; a something that places them apart from the world and all things worldly, thus making of their good deeds done quietly yet forcibly, a crowning blessing to humanity.

It is this very sentiment of sincere attachment to duty and his withdrawal from all things worldly that gives to the men of God the strength that is his, and which enables him to stand as a power for good over evil. In the general recognition of this fact, therefore, it is, we say, regrettable that Dr. Sullivan should have seen fit to enter into a newspaper controversy, at a time too, when there was so little cause for the step.

Thus speaks the News-Democrat, and thus it charges that Dr. Sullivan has departed from the sacred obligations of his office; and has withdrawn from "the sentiment of sincere attachment to duty, that gives to the man of God the strength that is his and enables him to stand as a power for good over evil."

The pastor's association should take some steps to codify the News-Democrat's editorial on "True Christianity" of June 8, which began with the religious in our churches, and the News-Democrat's editorial on "The Church and the World" of June 8.

by hysteria or the false words to create this hysteria"; and this latest treatise on the source of ministerial power. It is the new theology.

Pardon, we grow facetious over a serious matter; but our mood is joyous. Nothing delights us more or arouses our spirits to a higher level than a chance to fight for a righteous cause; and our morning contemplation by its hostile attitude toward all that is good and pure in the world, affords us an ample sufficiency of opportunity to exploit that spirit.
Not that we would have any one believe we are glad to see the morning paper thus array itself against the right. We would have it otherwise; for we feel strong enough to cope with even a respectable contemporary.

In avoidance of the accusation of "wrath" against all the ministers, the News-Democrat says it applied the title "political parsons" to some who,
"being found out were banished; who could ask otherwise."

So, the ministers, whom the News-Democrat was attacking were banished. Now, who could they be?
Being banished?—perhaps, resigned; for how otherwise are ministers banished?—Having resigned, they no longer have any congregations to back them up, and the News-Democrat editor now must feel that he has wriggled out of a bad situation, without hurting the feelings of anyone, who will remain in Paducah.

That is pretty flimsy; but if Dr.
Sullivan and the other ministers are willing to accept the apology, that the News-Democrat was not referring to any of the preachers, who are going to "remain in our midst," well and good, we are satisfied.

Otherwise, it is time for the churches to take heed; for one cannot attack the clergymen without attacking the church. A decadent clergy marks a decadent church.
If the pastor is not doing his duty to his God, ill fares the church over which he presides, and ill follows his example of neglected sacrifice.

No friend of the church ever attacks the church in that fashion. The man or paper, who holds the clergy up to scorn, hates the church; for his speech is an injury to the whole organization. When a friend of the church sees what he considers an error, he is careful to be specific in his definition of it and to exempt what is right from his criticism.
Should the clergy sit silent under the stinging accusation that they have been engaged in demoralizing reforms and neglecting their duty toward the unfortunates of our city and county, we laymen might accept the truth of that indictment as confessed. Having signed himself as "chairman of the Protestant Pastors' association," we presume that Dr. Sullivan's letter was no ill-considered one, and we have little fear that his "friends and admirers" will "regret" what he has said.

News from home, perhaps, never stirs a longing for freedom within the bosom of the imprisoned Curtis Jett, of Breathitt county.

When we hear that Mrs. Russell Sage has given away $25,000,000 since her husband's death, we feel almost like demanding a guardian for her; but when we learn that she still has $40,000,000, with which to purchase bodily comforts for her declining days, we are restored to our mental equilibrium.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

To the mayor, the council boards, health officials, board of public works, park and fire and police commissioners, you all, who are working for the health and welfare of our lovely city, of which her citizens have always been so justly proud, and more so now that we have had with us one whose business it is to investigate and point out deficiencies, and their remedies. We are certainly proud of the fact that one so thoroughly competent to judge found so much to commend, so little to condemn. With every one doing his or her best to improve the beauty and cleanliness, and the health of our city, there is hope of saving numbers of lives and lengthening others very materially.
But, while doing this, why not take into consideration the NERVES of people? Why prolong lives to be troubled by the incessant jangle of gongs and bells manipulated by irresponsible boys and drivers and venders. It is a subject of surprise and criticism to strangers and visitors that such a relic of barbarism is permitted in an up-to-date city. The church bell days are things of the past, why not the other bells? If one or two lines of business need the accompaniment of such intolerable noises, why should not others? Why shouldn't the grocers, the butchers, the coal man advertise their approach by playing a devil's tattoo all up and down the street? Now, gentlemen, all of you stop to think just one moment of the uselessness of the gong and bell at any time. Use the authority vested in you by the people, for the people, to protect the weak as well as the strong. Devise some method to suppress the torture to the nerves and ear drums not made for cast iron.

A SUFFERER FROM GONITIS.

"Do you mean to say that you flirted with your wife all the evening at the masked ball and didn't know her?" "That's right. But she was so deuced agreeable—how was I to know her?"—Cleveland Leader.

Many a man's boasted bravery has gone lame when his wife suggests that he visit the kitchen and fire the cook.

THE STATE PRESS.

Henderson Gleason.

Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane has come and gone. Some think she is a second Carrie Nation—one without a hatchet, but with as sharp a tongue.
Others went so far as to say she was as great a meddler.

One prominent man said that he did not know and had not been able to find out her object, that she did not tell anything new and that what she did tell was well known to every citizen in the city.

The idea of street parks in the middle of the street has already been discussed and may be put into practice.
He said that every one knew that the city hospital was not the best thing in the world and that if the city was able to build a new one it would be done, "but," said he, "I think she is wrong about not having any at all if we could not have a better one."

Some are very bitter against her for her criticisms and lose sight of the fact that she praised more than she criticised.

Mrs. Crane seemed to be a very bright and intelligent woman and also a pleasant one and it might be uncharitable to say things about her and to judge her too harshly.

Urey Woodson in the Owensboro

Messenger.

Only those people who do not know the judge of the McCracken county court are surprised at the exhibition he has recently made of himself.

Kentucky State Journal.

At long range it looks like Mrs.
Crane got a bit the best of the controversy precipitated by the county judge of McCracken as a result of some of her criticisms.

In view of the great work Mrs. Caroline Bartlett-Crane has done for Kentucky in her tour of our cities the attempt of the fiscal court of Mccracken county to cripple her work at Paducah by an alleged "funny" resolution of criticism is not only ridiculous, but pitiable.

Mayfield Messenger.

Paducah is certainly getting into a deplorable condition. When it comes to four of its preachers resigning their places and seeking labor elsewhere.

But who could blame them when the fiscal court of the big county of McCracken would unanimously adopt a set of resolutions, such as were passed by it so soon after the visit of Mrs. Crane. The next thing in order is for the city council to pass resolutions condemning the fiscal court.

What is to become of the churches of that beautiful city?

Louisville Herald.

It was inevitable that Mrs. Bartlett Crane should stir up opposition before she got through with her inquisi-torial inspection of Kentucky. Public officials, who have long reclined at their posts of duty in the happy consciousness that the indifferent public would not heed their derelic-tion, naturally resent the sudden invasion of a woman with keen eyes and keener tongue, who proceeds to tell the people all about what it was primarily their duty to do.

We do not doubt that the Michigan lady has discovered much that was far short of ideal; in many cases she has probably been justified in using vigorous terms to characterize official incompetence and neglect. So far as we have been able to follow her tour through the state we are inclined to credit her with a disposition to be fair. Criticisms such as she has offered should be welcomed by the communities affected. It is pleasing to note that in Paducah the people evidently sympathized with her, and were moved to leave the indignant judge of the county alone in his wrath.

The next duty is to get after the judge, and see that he does not evade the issue he himself created. If matters under his jurisdiction are not as they ought to be, it is up to the community to see that he makes them right, and is not permitted to evade his obligations by mere bluster and the resort to calling other people names.

Mrs. Bartlett-Crane has done an excellent work in the state if she has succeeded in quickening the popular conscience on the question of public health and morals. Nor is her work rendered less valuable because it has irritated certain individuals who considered themselves asspersed. Some of the county officials are so given to lethargy that it is a service to the people to make them angry.

The way of the reformer is always a thorny one, and the Michigan lady no doubt knows by now what to ex-

Gray Hairs Banished.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of it souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

pect when she ventures to tell the truth about what she sees. But a little vigorous feminine house-cleaning in any state is a good thing. The dust has been raised; it is now our business to see that it does not settle back on the furniture again.

Bowling Green Messenger.

Rev. Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane, the lady who cleaned up Kalamazoo, has come and gone, and Kentucky will probably know her no more forever. While, so far as the great bulk of the people are concerned, she came without invitation, she discovered a great many things which perhaps we did not know, and she was not backward in coming forward to tell us about them. Her visit to Bowling Green was altogether pleasant to the citizens, and she did not leave any particularly bad taste in our mouths.
Of course she said many things where she might have done the county, city and officials justice, but her mission appeared to be to find out the stink places rather than the flower gardens.
Many of her recommendations are good, more are impractical, and some are only the vague imaginings of her own brain.

Down at Paducah, she ran afoul of a peppery little county judge, who offered to debate the subject of civic reform with her, which she properly declined. And yet she predicted her whole indictment of a county upon the fact that prisoners of unequal degree of guilt were associated together, which is not important if true, and that sick inhabitants of the county alms house are allowed to die in the presence of the well ones. Of course we are all willing to accept suggestions and advice from specialists, but it does look like rubbing it in on a fellow, WHEN A SELF-IN-VITED GUEST SPLITS HAIR on a question of pure ethics.

Grant's Son There.

Union forces during the war, is a visitor in Memphis today for a few Central railroad in his private car.

Among the other guests with Mr.
Harahan are Blawett Lee, son of the Monument Is Rejected.

The design for the monument to the women of the Confederacy was rejected because the sculptor had created a militant woman, armed, belted and waving a flag. It was unanimously agreed that this was in no sense a fitting memorial to the gentle, tender and devoted women of the south.

Pretty School Reception Last Night.
Mrs. John J. Dorian's private school held its annual reception last evening at the Dorian home on South Fourth street. It was a charming social function and about 100 guests were present. The reception was in honor of the former pupils of the school as well as the pupils of this year.

The house was most attractive in its arrangement and decorations. The school colors, red and white, and the school flower, the carnation, were used in profusion throughout the rooms except the parlor, where sweet peas were given the preference in honor of the graduates of the January division of the High school class of 1909, who were guests of honor of the evening. The yard was effective with Japanese lanterns.

The red and white motif was prettily emphasized in the delicious ice cream, strawberries and cakes that were served in the attractively decorated dining room.

An informal musical program was rendered during the evening.
Mrs. Dorian's school is growing a teacher has received decided recognition both at home and abroad and her delightful charm of spontaneity and interest have made her the friend of the pupils as well.

BLUOCOATS USE PAPER CLUBS.

New York Policemen Are Accused of New Graft by Bingham.

New York, June 7.—The discovery that many of the dress clubs used by policemen are made of paper mache and varnished and that the uniforms of the members of the force are composed of inferior cloth prompted Commissioner Bingham today to order a new inspection of uniforms and equipment.

It is hinted by Inspector Bingham that the inspectors who passed the paper clubs and cheap uniforms will be called to a strict accounting. Cloth experts will be called in to examine the uniforms, and makers of dogwood sticks will be asked to explain the relative value of wooden and paper clubs.

I know that some policemen saved from $10 to $15 each by buying the counterfeit suits, but the saving effected by buying common ordinary paper "bills" instead of the tough wooden ones prescribed by the rules of the police department remains to be figured out by the mathematicians of the force.

NINE ARRESTS MADE SO FAR

By Government Officials Who Uncarried Black Hand.

Important Evidence Seized by Authorities Which Convinces Them They Have Found

A GANG OF BLACKMAILERS.

Cincinnati, June 10.—Revelations in extortion, plotting and murder by the Black Hand as uncovered by the postoffice inspectors show conclusively that the gang in Columbus, Marion, Dennison, Bellefontaine and other Ohio towns, were organized along the same lines as the old Mafia.

It is now known that the Ohio Black Hand had branches in Pittsburgh, Chicago, and a line that extended to South Dakota. Regular meetings were held and the money obtained by extortion was distributed to various divisions in this country and sent to relatives in Italy for safe keeping. The authorities say they have written evidence in the shape of letters that convince them that they have made important arrests.

Nine arrests have been made so far in Columbus, Marion, Bellefontaine and Dennison, all in Ohio, and the government officers in Chicago and Cincinnati are looking for Antonio Lima, brother of Salvatore Lima, who was arrested in Marion, Antonio to Lima, who eluded the officers at Sandusky yesterday, is considered one of the chief ring leaders of the gang.

Two Arrests in Cleveland.

Cleveland, June 10.—Antonio and Joseph Nusso, brothers and proprietors of a commission house, were arrested here and are in jail on suspicion that they are members of the Black Hand band of which Sam Lima of Marion, Ohio, is said to be the leader.

S.S.S.

OLDEST AND BEST BLOOD PURIFIER

We have never claimed that S. S. S. was a medicine to work wonders, nor one that would cure every physical ailment or disorder. More than forty years ago it was placed on the market and recommended as a blood purifier, and today, after a long and successful career, and when its use has become almost universal, only the same honest claim is made for it—that it is a cure for those diseases and disorders arising from an impure or polluted blood. Time makes no mistakes, and the very best recommendation of S. S. S. is the fact that it has stood a long test and is now more generally used, and has the confidence of a greater number of people than any other blood medicine.

The blood is the most vital force of life; every organ, nerve, muscle, tissue and sinew of the body is dependent on it for nourishment and strength, and as it circulates through the system, pure and rich, it furnishes to these different members the healthful properties needed to preserve them and enable them to perform their various duties. So long as the blood remains free from infection we are apt to escape disease, but any impurity, humor or poison acts injuriously on the system and affects the general health.

Pustular eruptions, pimples, rashes, and the various skin affections, show that the blood is in a feverish condition as a result of some humor, or the presence of an irritating, fiery acid. Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the circulation, while Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula and Contagious Blood Poison, are all deep-seated blood disorders that will continue to grow worse as long as the cause remains. Bad blood may come from various causes, such as a sluggish condition of the system, imperfect bowel and kidney action, indigestion, etc., or the trouble may be inherited; but whatever the cause the blood must be purified before the body can be healthy.

S. S. S. is a natural blood purifier and tonic. It is made entirely of the harmless juices and extracts of roots, herbs and barks of recognized curative ability, and being free from all harmful minerals is an absolutely safe medicine for young or old. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation and removes any and every trace of impurity, humor or poison. It freshens and enriches the blood and cures promptly and permanently Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, and all other blood disorders. S. S. S. is the most reliable and at the same time a most pleasant acting medicine for those whose blood has become weak and who are suffering with Anemia, Malaria or some other debilitating sickness.

A blood purifier is especially needed in the Spring to cleanse the circulation of the impurities which have accumulated during the shut-in life of Winter, and S. S. S. is the most reliable and certain of good results. Book on the blood and medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Having used S. S. S. extensively I can testify to its merits as a blood purifier and tonic. It enriches, purifies and cleanses the blood of all impurities, and at the same time is a wonderful invigorator, tonic and system builder. It is also a fine remedy for Rheumatism. It is master of this very painful disease, and as a tonic to give appetite, strength to the nerves and build up the system it has no equal. It is a very fine medicine indeed, and I have every confidence in it. MRS. F. L. BAILEY, 702 Linden St., Clearfield, Pa.

If you wish to place an order with other dealers, and they try to persuade you not to have it, remember it is only because they make more out of selling inferior coal than they do selling Pittsburgh.

THREE DAYS GRACE

PERFORMED BY SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL CLASS.

Miss Clara Smith's Production Attracts Enthusiastic Audience.

"Three Days Grace," written by Miss Clara Smith and presented last night at the High school auditorium by the senior class is a clever little musical comedy, and was enjoyed by the audience. The author was the recipient of many compliments for her work, while her classmates did splendid service in presenting the play, which was rehearsed by Miss Adah Brazelton and Prof. W. A. Evans, of the High school faculty.

The play deals with college life, and the students are portrayed while having their fun, with narrow escapes by the unheralded appearance of the teachers. Of course the play had a love romance, Jacqueline Allison and Bob Talbot had difficulty in carrying out their romance because of the constant interruption of the teacher, but with the assistance of her college chums the absence of Jacqueline was concealed. The first act represented a college girl's room the first night of commencement after the reception, while the second act was the room after the rehearsal. The third act was the library of Jacqueline's home, and in a short time her romance was closed.

Jacqueline, the class leader, was portrayed cleverly by Miss Clara Smith, while her college chums were Madge Murfee, Geneva Weldon, Elizabeth Barrett and Ruth Hayden, the parts being taken respectively by Misses Katherine Rock, Julia Dabney, Allie D. Foster and Almee Dreyfuss. Frank Luftenberg was Mr. Allison, while William Wilhelm was a charming matron as Mrs. Adison. Edward Mitchell was Bob Talbot, while John Rinkloff was Prof. Uppercrust.

The play was interspersed with songs, which was all the more enjoyable. Miss Clara Smith sang "What's the Use of Studying" and all of the college girls agreed there was not any. "Love is Like a Game of Cards" was sung by Miss Allie D. Foster, and Miss Julia Dabney sang "Oh, You Kid!" William Wilhelm sang "I'm Married Now," while John Rinkloff sighed for the absent girls and sang "That Lonely Feeling." "College Life" was sung by the girls in the play, while "Old Glory" ended the play.

Miss Adah Brazelton, piano; Clark Bondurant, violin, and Robert Bondurant, cornet, played during the evening.

Following the play a reception was given the senior class by the members of the Junior class.

Recovering From Injury.

Fireman Bud Gibson, of the Central station, is recovering from an injury to his right ankle as the result of the wheel of the aerial truck passing over his foot. Fortunately at the time Mr. Gibson wore a heavy boot, which was cut away, but the wheel struck his foot only a glance. An alarm was received at the station and he was climbing on the wagon when just as he slipped the horses started.

LETTERS FROM HOME

Hazel, Ky., June 7, 1909.

Hays & Miller Bros.,
Paducah, Ky.

To anyone suffering from rheumatism I will say that I have been suffering with casotic rheumatism for three months and I was confined to my room for two weeks. Since taking only one bottle of Hays' Specific I am now relieved of the pain and able to work all of the time. J. T. Jones, R. F. D. No. 1, Hazel, Ky.

Paducah, Ky., June 4, 1909.

Hays & Miller Bros.,

Dear Sirs:—We are delighted to add our testimony to the virtues of Hays' Specific. We lead a sedentary life, which causes us to have constipation, rheumatism and stomach trouble. For years we have looked for a remedy, but in Hays' Specific we have found a cure. So far it has not failed on a single man and twenty-eight have taken it. We have also recommended it to many of our friends, and know of no failures. This is putting it strong, but we stand ready to make affidavit to this testimonial, for the benefit of any who doubt it.

J. J. WOOD,
Chief Fire Dept., Paducah, Ky.

HELP WANTED—WEEK.

SHRINERS ELEC THEIR OFFICERS IN USUAL MANNER

Louisville, Ky., June 10.—The potentate of Indianapolis, Elias D. Jacoby, was elected as imperial outer guard of the Ancient Arabic order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

This lowest office on the imperial divan puts Mr. Jacoby on the round for his fourteen-year climb to the position of imperial potentate, to which office George L. Street, of Richmond, Va., was elected. By electing Mr. Street the Shriners set themselves on record again as opposing any change in the custom of moving the officers "up one" to which there had developed some opposition.

Charters were also granted to the following, whose banners and claims had besprinkled the town with color and mad: It echo with noise all week.

Terre Haute, Ind.; Pittsburg, Kas.; Wichita, Kas.; Norfolk, Va.; El Paso, Tex.; Grand Forks, S. D. Charters were refused Macon, Ga., and Newburg, N. Y.

The imperial council let it be known that it, in future, "frowns down all wholesale distribution of liquor," and it will next year pass a resolution forbidding the distribution of expensive badges for exchange among Shriners, "because it breeds mad souvenir hunters."

The roster of officers for the year is as follows: Imperial potentate, George L. Street, of Richmond, Va.; imperial deputy potentate, Frederick A. Hines, of Los Angeles; imperial chief rabban, W. J. Cunningham, of Baltimore; imperial high priest and prophet, William W. Irwin, of Wheeling; imperial oriental guide, Jacob T. Barron, of Columbia, S. C.; imperial treasurer, William S. Brown, of Pittsburgh (re-elected); imperial recorder, Benjamin B. Rowell, of Boston (re-elected); imperial first ceremonial master, Frederick R. Smith, of Rochester, N. Y.; imperial second ceremonial master, J. P. Stevens, of Portland, Me.; imperial marshal, Henry W. Neldinghaus, of St. Louis; imperial captain of the guard, Charles E. Overhine, of Minneapolis; imperial outer guard, Elias D. Jacoby, of Indianapolis.

Mr. Jacoby, who is a prominent lawyer and former partner of Charles W. Fairbanks, won over Preeland Kendrick, of Philadelphia, who withdrew in the second ballot and made the Jacoby election unanimous. As the new mogul of shrinedom came from the balloting room he was seized by an army of waiting nobles and hugged.

Wallace Park Notes.

Judging from current talk, it is a safe prediction that a popular diversion among society folk this summer is going to be at fresco supper parties at Wallace park. Quite a number are laying their plans for the enjoyment of this feature. The park is looking more beautiful than at any time since its opening season, and the facilities provided are this year quite superior to any previous time. The park cafe is unusually well equipped and stocked, and is in charge of a most courteous experience and high-class caterer; and any parties relying on the park management are certain to receive correct and good service. Parties wishing to arrange for service can communicate with Mr. Guy Barnett, at the park or Mr. Deal, new phone 136.

The fourth of the Wallace park pavilion dances occurs tomorrow night. A fine musical program has been prepared and quite a number of new hits will be presented for the approval of the dancers.

An excellent amateur performance was given at the Wallace park Casino last night, in which the following well known players took part: Miss Lella Hollis, Miss Ruby Detzel and Messrs. William Farrow, Ed Farrow, Frank Vosler, George Rock and Nelson Boaz.

First honors were awarded by a committee from the audience to Eddie Farrow and Frank Vosler, who together did a blackface singing turn. All the numbers were good and were well received by the audience—the sketch by Miss Hollis and Willie Farrow being a close second.

Terrible Loss of Life.

The Hague, June 10.—The government is fearful there has been an enormous loss of life in the Upper Padang and other islands. Reports today indicate the loss there is trifling compared with havoc wrought in other islands of the group. Inadequate means of communication causes details to be hard to obtain.

SAYS THERE IS A "RAG TRUST"

Declaration by Senator Dol-liver Causes Denial.

Warren Would Know It, and Because He Has No Knowledge of It,
It Does Not Exist.

ARE NOW UNDER DISCUSSION.

Washington, June 10.—The woolen schedule was still under consideration in the senate when at 5:30 the usual recess for dinner was taken.
Several votes were obtained during the day and thus the number of pa-graphs were passed upon. Among these were the paragraph on top waste, etc., on which the committee amendment increased the house rate of wool top waste and wool wastes from 20 cents a pound to 30, which on a division of the senate, was adopted 40 to 30.

This was the finance committee change and the committee scored its usual majority as on all other votes of the day. Gamble and Crawford deserted the "progressives," but with these exceptions the ranks of that contingent remained unbroken. A vote was also obtained upon the committee amendment increasing duty on shoddy from 20 cents a pound to 25, and that on tops from 18 to 20, the committee prevailing in both cases.

Speeches were made during the day by Warren and La Follette, the former advocating, as on yesterday, a generally increased duty, while the latter contended, as on previous occasions, for a general reduction. The two senators engaged in a sharp controvery during which La Follette said that those in the senate who believed with him had increased from nothing to a dozen. He said he expected further accretions from the east.

Probably the most interesting development of the day was the declaration by Doliver that a "rag trust" exists. The Iowa senator declared such to be the case, but he was contradicted by Warren, who declared that if such a trust should exist he would know about it and he added that he had no knowledge of it.

At the beginning of the day's session a letter was read from former Governor Durbin, of Indiana, advising prompt action on the tariff bill.

A Promise to Pay

Would you accept a stranger's note? No. Then why accept from a stranger any other promise to pay? A Fire insurance policy is such a promise.
Ought you to accept it without knowing all about the Company? Your usual business confidence is based on knowledge. Why make an exception in that part of your business which deals with insurance? A name is worth nothing on any kind of a promise to pay unless it is backed by character and resources.

We favor insurance knowledge, particularly about our companies. Their promises to pay have never gone to protest. Their obligations to its policy holders are backed with such a good reputation and such ample financial resources that the more you know about them the more you will want protection by their policies.

KETCHELL WINS IN 3RD ROUND

Whipped O'Brien So Referee Had to Stop Fight.

Was Whirlwind Affair—Kethell Floored Opponent Twice in Second Round and Once in Third.

MORE SPEED THAN JOHNSON

Philadelphia, June 10.—Stanley Ketchell, middleweight champion defeated Jack O'Brien in the third round, thus accomplishing a feat that Jack Johnson, heavyweight champion, failed to achieve in six rounds three weeks ago. The fight was stopped in the second minute of the third round after O'Brien had been knocked down twice in the second and once in the third, and was almost unable to raise his hands to defend himself.

Whirlwind Affair.
The fight was a whirlwind affair from start to finish. Ketchell went after O'Brien from the tap of the gong. He devoted his attention to O'Brien's body until he had drawn the latter's guard down, and then he sent in a crashing right in the second that scored the first knock down.
O'Brien got up gamely but went down flat on his back a few moments later from a right and a left on the jaw.

The third and last round was brief. Ketchell went in for a knockout and though he failed had O'Brien in such a desperate condition that the referee stopped the fight.

First Round.
Ketchell went after O'Brien with a rush and planted a right on the body.
O'Brien sent in a stiff left to the face and a right on the body. Ketch-ell showed his intention to give attention to O'Brien's body and sent a stiff left to the ribs. He cut O'Brien slightly over the right eye and got a right that raised a big lump on his right cheek.

Second Round.
O'Brien jabbed Ketchell twice in the face with his left, but failed to stop his rushes. There were a lot of clinchings and in the break O'Brien caught Ketchell a stinging right on the jaw that staggered him. Ketchell slowed up for a moment, and seemed tired, but soon resumed his rushes.
He was wild and O'Brien caught him with three right swings squarely on the jaw. Ketchell slowed up but a moment later swung a terrific right on O'Brien's jaw that sent him down for five seconds. O'Brien got up slowly, only to go down again from a right hand blow for the count of six. The gong rang just as O'Brien struggled to his feet very groggy.

Third Round.
There was a desperate attempt by Ketchell to end the fight quickly. He went after O'Brien and in his anxiety to land a knockout blow, was wild.
He pinned O'Brien to the ropes and sent in a short arm hand blow to the chin that put O'Brien against the ropes helpless. O'Brien kept his head however, and clinched and hung on to save himself. Ketchell fought himself loose from O'Brien's clasp and swung a right and left on the almost helpless O'Brien. He staggered about groggily and Referee McGuigan, evidently fearing that O'Brien might be seriously injured, stopped the contest. O'Brien was disposed to protest this action, but thought better of it and left the ring.

MONTREAL AND QUEBEC.

A veritable edition de luxe among railroad pamphlets has been issued by the Grand Trunk Railway System to proclaim amongst tourists the glories of the cities of Montreal and Quebec.
The brochure is beautifully printed and generally arranged in the artistic style of earlier days, when the ornamentation of a volume was regarded as an important incident to its pre-also very well written, and gives an interesting description of the two most interesting cities in Canada, with many illustrations from photo-
